MINUTES * * * *

The minutes of the previous meeting were not approved since there was not a quorum present.

MAYOR'S REPORT * * * *

None.

CITIZEN CONCERNS * * * *

None.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS * * * *

223 N Main Street – Jenkins reported that he had given Helt the 45 day notice that was discussed at the previous meeting. When Helt was contacted he said that he was very ill and it would be a while before he could work on the demolition. After a couple of weeks and not hearing anything from Helt, Jenkins continued to try to contact Helt to no avail. After some time Jenkins finally was able to talk to Helt and he said his son would be down to work on the demolition. On Monday of this week a crew finally arrived and began removing the roof. Jenkins will continue to monitor the progress.

312-314 West 5th Street – There has been no response from the owner. The Park Department has mowed and the Street Department has cleaned up trash.

424 N Harrison Street - There has been no response from the owner. The Park Department has mowed and the Street Department has cleaned up trash. Jenkins has asked for quotes for removal of the structure.

Jenkins stated that he is working with The Winston Terrell Group regarding the possibility of grants for demolition of unsafe buildings.
